

Sick Girl

Melody Fall

You're my Sick Girl
You're just so hot and sexy
I want you girl
You're unpredictable

The school bell rings
I say goodbye
I just have one thing in my bored mind
Hear thousand words that fill the air
I just wanna her

She's bad she's hot
She blows my mind
She wears a red tie and a skirt with skulls
She's freaking out here everytime
I'm staring at her

You're my Sick Girl
You're just so hot and sexy
I want you girl
You're unpredictable

Don't hold your breath
they staid that night
She won't get togheter a normal guy
It is too strange to change my mind
Cause I just wanna her

She's bad she's hot
She's got no rules
make sure she won't be making eyes at you
I'll be your sick boy
All night long her just become

You're my Sick Girl
You're just so hot and sexy
I want you girl
You're unpredictable
