

Someone To Believe

Melody Thornton

I need someone, one heart to beat
Ride alongside my own, I need someone to believe
That I will fight, till the day
I will fight, all the way
I will fight
Lord knows I won't stop, until my heart gives way
And I don't believe in fairytales no more, but I still believe in me
I don't believe in forever, but I could use some company
Still I will fight, till the day
I will fight, all the way
I will fight
Lord knows I won't stop, until my heart gives way
