

Don't Think You're Smart

Memphis Slim

Don't think you're smart
Because you've got every man in town
Woman, don't think you're smart
Because you've got every man in town

Well, well, you ain't doin' nothin'
Woo, well, well, would tear your reputation down

I can get high and roll in a gutter
And get up and brush my self up
I can get high and roll in a gutter
And get up and brush my self up

But baby if you do so
Woo, well, well, you know
Your reputation is lost

Now don't think I'm scoldin' you
I'm just tryin' to get you to learn
Baby, don't think I'm scoldin' you
I'm just tryin' to get you to learn

Well, well, that a woman reputation
Woo, well, well, it's somethin' that money can't earn
