Men Without Hats

On tuesday, you came in from the storm. On tuesday, you came and made me warm, On tuesday.

On tuesday, you made me fly, much higher than before On tuesday, you made me cry, and made me smile for more Cause, love is something I adore On tuesday.

On tuesday, you saved my life, I was nothing but a wall On tuesday you made me high, I was flying on the floor Cause, love is something I adore On tuesday.

It was only make believe, then along came tuesday Changed everything, on tuesday

On tuesday, you wave goodby, you step into the storm On tuesday, you save my life, a smile will keep me warm On tuesday, you made me cry, like a child being born On tuesday, you made me high, I'll be flying ever more Cause, love is something I adore on tuesday

It was only make believe. Then along came tuesday Changed everything

On Tuesday....
