

I Just Wanna Be Happy

Mental As Anything

When you have too much pleasure
In the course of the night's activities
You have to be very clever
Avoiding the bad effects of these
I just want to be happy
Don't want to be sad
Don't want to be too possessive
You're the girl that I should always have

You might be feeling silly
Unable to converse properly
This could be of damage
To your social acceptability
I just want to be happy

Don't want to be sad
Don't want to be too possessive
You're the girl that I should always have

All my friends might come around
And try to make me feel so good
But I can't find relief in there
Cause both my arms are made of wood
I just want to be happy

Don't want to be sad
Don't want to be too possessive
You're the girl that I should always have

Falling over the furniture
Your head is starting to spin
You'd better leave pretty smartly
Or the host won't be asking you back again
I just want to be happy

Don't want to be sad
Don't want to be too possessive
You're the girl that I should always have
