

Mirror Shows Black

Merauder

Divine intervention preaching your solemn holy words
They place their faith as you pawn their trust away
Advantageous ways that you get paid

Your mirror shows black
I see your pain
Your mirror shows black
I see your pain

Abolishment of present, past and the future
Karma has returned your way
Full circle attack, signs of penance you lack
It's the price he paid for his judgement day

Your mirror shows black
I see your pain
Your mirror shows black
I see your pain

Enter my world, no holding back on you
You'll bleed as I bled
Recognize the disgrace you've placed on our fucking race
Trust displaced as my heart fills with hate

Your mirror shows black
I see your pain
Your mirror shows black
I see your pain
