Melissa

Mercyful Fate

I'm kneeling in front of the altar Satan's cross upon the wall Strange emptiness, a crystal ball between two candles Melissa has entered another life

Melissa, you were mine Melissa, you were the light

She was a witch Why did they take you away?

Melissa, you were the queen of the night Melissa, you were my light

I swear revenge on the priest The priest must die He must die in the name of Hell

Melissa, can you hear me? Melissa, are you there? Nothing is left outside at the stake

They take the hurt Away from me I think Melissa's still with us
