

Since Forever

Mercyful Fate

On this cold and windy Sunday
I'm sitting here alone...
It's Autumn
I'm looking at a yellow picture
You have been gone forever
Oh it's so very hard,
Growing old on your own, alone
I'm trying to remember... the days...
When we were young
Since forever,
I still remember your ways
Since forever,
I still remember
I have been reading your letter,
Over and over again
I can't believe you're gonna be here today
I can't believe...
This is Sunday
How nice of you to come,
It's been so way too long
Let me get you another glass of wine
To keep our tongues in time
Since forever,
I still remember your ways
Since forever,
I still remember
So many things have never been told
And now the both of us are way too old
Since forever,
I still remember your ways
Since forever,
I still remember
Like the light of the sun
You used to brightened my day
But darkness ha taken your place
And I can no longer keep it away
Since forever,
I still remember your ways
Since forever,
I still remember
I ask you for one last time
No there won't be any wine
Just one more time
So you can put flowers on my grave
And then leave again...
Since forever
