

Go

MercyMe

My life has been instilled
By a hope that never moves
And yet it moves me still
So I'm crying out to You
Use me
So I can take Your fame and glory
For all to see
No matter where Your hand may lead me

I will go
I will go
To make You known
I will go

I can't keep You to myself
My heart is just too small
There's so many left to tell
That You came for one and all
Use me
So I can take Your fame and Glory
For all to see
No matter where Your hand may lead me

For a dying world in need
For the hungry and the weak
For the sinner scared to speak
I will go
