

I Know

MercyMe

Where do I begin with what to say
I've played this conversation in my head so many times
I'm certainly not claiming to know everything
But what I do will save your life.

I know, I know that God is able
I know, I know that He still reigns
I know, I know that love has found a way.

No matter what it is you're going through
Even if you think you're far beyond where hope can see
I know there is a Hand that's reaching out for you
Because He did the same for me

It wasn't that long ago when my own world fell apart (it fell a part).
And everything here inside of me said to let go (you must let go).
I found my self crying out to the One who knows my heart (He knows your heart).
And holding tight to the few things that I know (few things that I know).

I know, I know, I know that love has found a way.

He has made a way!
