

Lift Up Your Head

Meredith Andrews

Let us all as one draw near
To the One who meets us here
Let us all fall down
Before the God who welcomes us in
Lift up your head
And throw off every chain
Lift up your eyes
To the One who doesn't change
Lift up your hands
The broken He will mend
So lift up your head
Let us all fix our gaze
On the Author of our faith
From all else we turn away
For the joy that conquers shame
Lift up your head
And throw off every chain
Lift up your eyes
To the One who doesn't change
Lift up your hands
The broken He will mend
So lift up your head
He is Lover
He is Redeemer
He is Father
He is Friend
He is our shelter
He is our healer
He is the lifter of our head
Lift up your head
And throw off every chain
Lift up your eyes
To the One who doesn't change
Lift up your hands
The broken He will mend
So lift up your head
