Here In Frisco

Merle Haggard

It's four a.m. in New York City three a.m. in Dallas The night is still early here in Frisco Market street's still going the same old shows are showing And I'm still all alone here in Frisco

They say it's raining in Chicago and it's cold and clear in Den ver Been windy all night long here in Frisco Troley cars are clinging the big Bay Town's swinging And I'm still all alone here in Frisco

The way I feel tonight I won't be staying long But when I leave I leave my heart just like in a famous song Troley cars are clinging the big Bay Town's swinging And I'm still all alone here in Frisco

And I'm still all alone here in Frisco And I'm still all alone here in Frisco
