

I Can't Stand Me

Merle Haggard

I can't stand me sine I lost you and I can't stand nobody else I can't stand me since you went away and I gotta get away from myself

I used to be a highstepper with a lot on the ball my friends all called me Ace
It took woman like you to bring a good man down
And make me ashamed to even show my face
I can't stand me since I lost you.

Oh when I look in the glass and see a grown man cry it makes me wanna hang my head
I used to feel real proud just to be aie but now I think I'd ra ther be dead
I can't stand me since I lost you.

I'm gonna find me a river about ten miles wide with a bridge ri ght all way across I'm gonna drag myself about half way over and then I'm gonna th row me off
I can't stand me since I lost you...

Yeah I gotta get away from myself
