

I've Got a Tender Heart

Merle Haggard

You did me like someone you had it in for
You lied when you said you'd treat me fair
Don't you know you heard me when you're made to me
I've got feelings and you don't seem to care
I'm rough and I'm rowdy, I'm tough and I'm smart
And I've got a tender heart

I know you think I'm strong enough to stand the pain
I'll get over you and make a brand new start
I'm rough and I'm rowdy, I'm tough and I'm smart
But I've got a tender heart

I know you think I'm strong enough to stand the pain
I'll get over you and make a brand new start
I'm rough and I'm rowdy, I'm tough and I'm smart
But I've got a tender heart
