

Texas

Merle Haggard

There's a pair of blue eyes down in Texas
Crying for me, crying for me
There's a heart big as Dallas down in old Fort Worth tonight
Breaking for me, breaking for me

I wish I was back in Texas where the big bluebonnets grow
Instead of up here in this jailhouse watching the north wind blow
There's a pair of blue eyes down in Texas
Crying for me, crying for me

I wish I was back in Texas where the ol' bluebonnets grow
Instead of up here in this jailhouse watching the north wind blow
There's a pair of blue eyes down in Texas
Crying for me, crying for me
