

Gold Watch and Chain

Meryl Streep

Darling, how can I stay here without you I have nothing to ease my poor heart all the world would seem sad dear without you Tell me now that we never will part.
I will pawn you my gold watch and chain love
I will pawn you my gold wedding ring
I will pawn you this heart in my bosom
Only say that you'll love me again.
Oh, the white rose that bloomed in the garden
Well it died dear when broke my heart
It first bloomed on the day that I meet you Only now we have fallen apart
I will pawn you my gold watch and chain love
I will pawn you my gold wedding ring
I will pawn you this heart in my bosom
Only say that you'll love me again.

don't you know that I gave you my hart, love it was given and can't be returned you have left me an gone to another all my hopes and bridges are burned but I will pawn you my gold watch and chain love and I will pawn you my gold wedding ring
I will pawn you this heart in my bosom
Only say that you'll love me again.
Only say that you'll love me again...
Only say that you'll love me again...
