

My Minnesota Home

Meryl Streep

Way down upon little Mississippi river
Not so far away
That's where my fokes have lived 4 ever
And that's where I'm goin' to stay

I've been searching across the whole creation Half my life or more (and more)
But I found my one sweet Satisfaction Right here on that muddy river shore

All the World
It is so sad and dreary
Every where I roll
Oh mama...how I miss the prairie and my Minnesota home

I can see my mama's sweet, sweet face
Every Sunday morning
All the good all hymns praise god that we've we melt in prepare right beside of our precious aunts and uncles Who loved us when we were young

In the valley of darkness they are the shepherds Who lead me to pastures green
And I'll sit with my mama by the still still waters
And goodness and mercy follow me

I floated down the Columbia and the Hudson Walked on the banks of the Ohio (Ohio Ohio) on the banks of a Wabash
And the mighty Colorado
And the old red river way up north

All the world is a world of rivers Flowing too the sea but here on that old Mississippi Here is the home for you and me

All the world it is so sad and dreary
Every where I roll
Oh mama... how I missed the prairie
and my Minnesota home
