

Second Peace of Thorn

Metal Inquisitor

The background to the battles was the downfall of a descent
Forces were recovered at the Baltic Sea
Although there continued: „rebellions and resistance”
Order of the eagle and their coat of arms

They want to know their Allies
They want to know their lies

The second peace is coming after me
The war of priests: their fall is deep

Out of constitution the orders getting clearer
Armies were scattered - they were miles away
Agreed upon surrender while the moon signaled nightfall
The flag of truce - it was sad but true

They want to know their Allies
They want to know their lies

The war of priests: their fall is deep
