

Borrowed Time

Metalium

It's too late - here I am
Reached the end of the story
I'm taking all the pain
Face the fate - no regrets
I feel so tired
Leaving this insanity - screaming back in agony

Locked inside my destiny
Is this the way it has to be?

Won't look back in anger now
Ride free

Can't you see
What it really means
When you're here to stay
Borrowed time
Agony
But not endlessly
You've been on your way
Borrowed time

What I've done - what I've been
Does it matter in that moment
When there's no return?

In the end - all the same
Gone tonight Lost control of everything - know my trip
's near to begin

Locked inside my destiny
Is this the way it has to be?

Won't look back in anger now
Ride free

Can't you see
What it really means
When you're here to stay
Borrowed time
Agony
But not endlessly
You've been on your way
Borrowed time

Can't you see
What it really means
When you're here to stay
Borrowed time
Agony
But not endlessly
You've been on your way
Borrowed time

Ohhhhh

Its too late

Here I am
Here I am
What I have done
What I've been
There is no return
In the end
I'm gone tonight
