

Follow the Sign

Metalium

Out in the cold
Feels like it rips out my heart
Seems like I'm fading
Slowly tears me apart
What am I doing
Is this real or a dream
Closing my eyes
Follow the visions in me

Oh, there is a world I know
Just can't get out

Doesn't matter what it takes to
Doesn't matter what it makes to
Break out one time
Doesn't matter if it changes you
If it really rearranges you
Follow the sign

Puppets on strings
We're caught, it's always the same
Just slowly dyin'
Prisoned, part of the game
Where is the guide
That leads me into the light
Enter the vision
Leave the darkness behind

Oh, I see the world I know
Just can't get out

Doesn't matter what it takes to...

Doesn't matter what it takes to...

Doesn't matter what it takes to
Doesn't matter what it makes to
Hell yeah
