

Infinite Love

Metalium

The moment we've seen us, our hearts were so tense
Our families they hate it, with blood as defence

So perfect, this love, created by fate
Cruelly Ironic- love springs from their hate

Now and forever we'll carry as one

No matter the hate this love won't be done

Hold me in your arms, feel my heart
Even death couldn't make us part
Infinite love
Soon we will meet above

Shakespeare's classical tragic love story about
The young lovers Romeo and Juliet.
Their Families hated and fought against each other.
The drama ends deadly for both, but they knew that not even Death could bring thje couple apart. It seemed simply impossibl e
For one of them to live without the other.
Leonard Bernstein wrote according this story his Interpretation called "West Side Story"
