

Lonely

Metalium

Deepest fear
Can't you hear
All the voices scream inside you
Make you blind

Enemies
Can't you see
The doors are locked
And you will never find

OUT!

No way out
Locked inside yourself while desperation cries
There's no way out
while thoughts are taking slowly your life

What's the reason to be lonely
Not a reason to be left all alone in the darkness

Lights are low
Fading slow
While the world is turning
No one really cares

Is it real
Can you feel
Behind the curtain
You would never dare

OUT

No way out
Locked inside yourself while desperation cries
There's no way out
While thoughts are taking slowly your life

What's the reason to be lonely
Not a reason to be left all alone in the darkness

What's the reason to be lonely
To be left all alone
Not a reason to be left all alone in the darkness

In the darkness
In the darkness
