

Back to Before

Methods Of Mayhem

Playing, the unbelievable.
Saying, the inconceivable.
Saving, the unretrievable now.
You're not the only one, that thinks we're getting done.

If you could just bring me back to before (nothing is ever what it was).
Leaving me lying here on the floor (trying to get that heady buzz).
Want it a lot, now I need it more (freedom is never what it was).

Thinking, I get to get it right.
Sinking, the noose is getting tight.
Living, for your sacred white cow.
You're not the only one, won't be the last one.

If you could just bring me back to before (nothing is ever what it was).
Leaving me lying here on the floor (trying to get that heady buzz).

(nothing is ever what it was, freedom is never what it was)

Dealing, with the impossible.
Stealing, to make it practical.
Feeling, you're responsible now.
You're not the only one.
(nothing is ever what it was, freedom is never what it was).

If you could just bring me back to before (nothing is ever what it was).
Leaving me lying here on the floor (trying to get that heady buzz).
Want it a lot, now I need it more (freedom is never what it was).

(nothing is ever what it was, freedom is never what it was).
(nothing is ever what it was, you're not the only one to be the last one).
