Blame

Methods Of Mayhem

Seems like no one makes me feel like you do all the light in the world filters through you I need some air, think I don't care at all and you want space I'm always in your face

I turned around and found you down I'm ashamed cause I'm to bla me and I'm sorry feel like I can't breathe if and when you leave I go insane cau se I'm to blame and I'm sorry

I don't want to change the way you think of me I don't want you to change my reality I don't play fair I think I care too much . stupid lies the hurt is in my eyes
I turned around and found you down I'm ashamed cause I'm to bla me and I'm sorry
feel like I can't breathe if and when you leave I go insane cau se I'm to blame and I'm sorry and it won't go away no matter what I can say Wish I could chan ge yesterday and do it over again And do it over again

I turned around and found you down I'm ashamed cause I'm to bla me and I'm sorry
feel like I can't breathe if and when you leave I go insane cau se I'm to blame and I'm sorry I turned around and found you down I'm ashamed and I'm to blame and I'm sorry
feel like I can't breathe if and when you leave I go insane cau se I'm to blame and I'm sorry.....
