Metro Station

Whoa
Yeah, yeah
Whoa
Yeah, yeah

I wonder if you're going down
Where we all know
You get lost, and then get found
And then I wonder so

I can't believe that's what you said
I wonder in my sleep
I can't believe that's what you heard
Can you not defeat?

I can't take this
No, I don't like it
I don't know where you are

You know, she's dancing at the disco
Whoa, she's dying on the dance floor

I know you're sleeping all alone
You feel suicidal
I know you're dying to get out
But it's in you deep inside

Do you feel it in your veins?
The poisoning rushing through
But can't you see that in your heart
I'm still there for you

I can't take this
No, I don't like it
I don't know where you are

You know, she's dancing at the disco
Whoa, she's dying on the dance floor

(So say my name)
You don't even know it
(When I am dying)
Well, you sure aren't showing it
(Now hold my hand)
You know she's on the dance floor
(Well, I know she's dying)
But still she craves more

Whoa
Yeah, yeah
Whoa
Yeah, yeah

You know, she's dancing at the disco
Whoa, she's dying on the dance floor
Yeah, yeah, she's dancing at the disco
Whoa, she's dying on the dance floor

Whoa
Yeah, yeah
Whoa
Yeah, yea
