

Trouble

Metronomy

I don't wanna go out
You don't wanna stay in
I guess we're gonna argue again

There's a tear in your eye
And there's no 'I' in team
I guess we're gonna argue again

But what I do is always come back to you
My heart is oh so true
But I might hurt you again
You know that it's true
I'm loving you

Oh no, not again, we're arguing
There's one thing causing you trouble
And girl you're the one thing caught in between
They say your boyfriend lives in a bubble
But I'd let them in, I'd let them in
