

Coffee Break

Mew

Close the door when they come in
They can feel their whole world spin
Smoking plastic shards
They'll never be scared of me
(I won't drown)
And when they change themselves
They are never afraid of me

Summer's out for you
There's no time for you

It is not what it seems
You're awake in your dreams
With lithium you'll never be sad again
But you can't sleep with her

It's not by choice, is it?
I hope you never come back
There's someone else in here
Please tell me why
Please tell me when
