

Wherever

Mew

It doesn't matter where you are
Someone is there with you, I fear
It doesn't matter where you are
I can't complain
Ignore the stain
Christmas day is over
Lights out, breathe slower

Cannot sleep
Open your eyes
Look outside
Tell your goodbyes

It doesn't matter where you are
When you're alone
Light a small fire
I don't like your sparkles at all
Guitarist and his centerfold
Why is that fire old?
A green light is a red light
In your dreams tonight
It's like a battle, battle.

Christmas day is over
Lights out, breathe slower

I told you why I am lonely
But you can't stay
Tomorrow, streets, blank faces
Stare unwilling
But there are so few

Cannot sleep
Open your eyes
Look outside
Tell your goodbyes

Cannot sleep
Open your eyes
Look outside
Tell your goodbyes

And I'll be waiting around your house