

i meant it metaphorically i'm here to save the day spiderman and batman, waiting for a catscan there's nothing left to say you analyze the problems you thought they went away space ghost, a new host, for cartoons on the west coast it'll never be the same
turn it down,
my dad would always say i know you've seen them all before

turn it down,
turn it down
please go outside and play i can't take it, when you're screaming, in the basement, and the t.v., is so loud i can't concentrate i watch'm catagorically my pillows on the floor saturday, morning, is really getting boring they leave me wanting more spending all my free time watching all i can a looney toon, community, wonder who is gonna be the one who understands
