

wendy was my first love brenda was a step above dana was the girl right inbetween stephanie a tri-delt never knew how i felt alicia thought she was a beauty queen and everywhere i wanna go they would always tell me no cause they were too afraid they might be seen and, all the times i analyze, and always seem to patronize i finally met a girl i want to be with now, i can embrace my fears it's like she's been with me for 20 years there's only one thing left to say jolene's the one so i wrote this song, and it's all about her and there's no-way i could stand each day, if i'd never met her elka had an attitude, left me standing in the nude and she could never look me in the eye i once had my best friend's little sister gilian but she was immature and so am i but when it comes to waiting and expecting all these things will end i cannot find the words to emphasize the way i'm feeling now, i can embrace.... jolene i saw your name, and all the others look the same your milky thighs and long brown hair, i just sit and stare it fills my heart and makes me glad to think of all the times w e had now that i'm living day to day, i'm gonna be ok
