

I Don't Love You Anymore

Mia Martina

I don't love you anymore,
I guess it's time for me to set you free
What's the point of holding on
If we're no longer where we used to be
And I feel like holding on
There's something that is done

I don't want you anymore
But I just don't see you without me
Someday I know you'll move on
I hope that she can love you more than me

And I feel like holding on,
There's something that needs done
And I feel like hanging on
This feeling is so strong

I still have this hold on for you
We both know how love can be
I should let go
Don't hold up, just let me go real slow
Don't hang up, hang up
I can see your body is weak
You're trying so hard but you're losing your grip
We should let go
Just figure this out tonight

I still have this hold on for you
We both know how love can be cruel
I should let go
Just let go real slow
I can see your body is weak
You're trying so hard but you're losing your grip
We should let go

I don't want you anymore
Just let me go, just let me go, baby
I don't love you anymore
