

Surrender Paradise

Miami Sound Machine

Tropical breeze, caressing me
Sweet fragrant air enticing me
Starlet skies are offering their love to me
I surrender to you, paradise
Heaven and earth are becoming as one
Shining light on their world
Open your heart, spread your wings
Take a chance for the flight of your life
Warm summer night, twinkling of stars
Gardenia blooms, oh, whispering love
Moonlight playing up and down a drifting waterfall
I surrender to you, paradise
Crystal blue sea, the white sandy beach
Sunset commands a rainbow to raise
All the birds in wonderland are singin' perfect harmony
I surrender to you, paradise
Secrets of love, lurking beyond, rapture me now
I know your passion is mine
Sun cast waves are frolicking along the foamy shore
I surrender to you, paradise
Butterflies are flattering the top of strings
I surrender to you, paradise
Moonlight playing up and down a drifting waterfall
I surrender to you, paradise
I surrender my love, when you want me, you need me
I will be here giving my love to you, paradise
