

Hear Me

Michael Bolton

Take these tears; put 'em in a bottle
Don't let these tears I've cried be in vain
Take these tears and keep them up in heaven
Water my life with tears like rain

Hear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hoping
Hear me; I am feeling broken
I am broken open

Take this life; turn it into something
I'm afraid it's just wasting time
Turn this life; the sun has ripened
Grow it slowly on the vine
Turn my tears into wine

Hear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hoping

Turn my tears into wine
Turn these tears into wine
All there's left of me are traces
Make me stronger in my broken places

Hear me, hear my words unspoken
Restore my faith in hoping
Hear me, I am feeling broken
I am broken open

Turn my tears into wine
Hear me
