

I'm Alive

Michael Bolton

I've slept under the sun
And I've tasted the rain, cold rain
I've loved more than once
And I've stared down the face of pain
But look at me, I'm still standing here today

I'm alive, yeah, I'm alive
I'd rather walk this winding road
And let love take a leap of faith than be alone
Yeah, I'm alive, life is stronger
And more powerful and beautiful than ever

Yesterday, I was a fool
But in our yesterdays we are all fools
Watched the news in disbelief
And prayed for love to bring relief
Giving up is always easier
Than standing up to fight but baby

I'm alive, yeah, I'm alive
I'd rather walk this winding road
And let love take a leap of faith than be alone
Yeah, I'm alive, life is stronger
And more powerful and beautiful than ever

Everybody gets scared a little, everybody gets tired a little Everybody feels low, everybody feels high
When life is a journey, take a deep breath
And enjoy the ride, enjoy the ride all on borrowed time

I'm alive, look around, baby
I'd rather take a leap of faith than be alone
Yeah, I'm alive, life is stronger
And more powerful, beautiful than ever

I'm alive, yeah, I'm alive
I'd rather walk this winding road
And let love take a leap of faith than be alone
Yeah, I'm alive, life is stronger
And more powerful and beautiful than ever

I'm alive, yeah, I'm alive
I'd rather walk this winding road
And let love take a leap of faith than be alone
Yeah, I'm alive, life is stronger
And more powerful and beautiful than ever
