

The Center of My Heart

Michael Bolton

How do I begin to say
Words are not enough to show you how I really feel
And how the night is now just knowing you are here

I can show you night and day
I'll hold you til' the end of all tomorrows disappear
Now it's all so clear

What a fool I would have been if I never let you in Inside of me, so faithfully you stood by me

It started with a leap of faith
Took me to a higher place
Though I wasn't ready to believe
You were there to reach inside of me

I thank you for the love you gave
For every step along the way
You taught me to believe again
And baby, that's the hardest part

It's all because you took the journey
The journey to the center of my heart

Looking back I have to laugh
Thinking how I walked the earth so proudly on my own
Oh, deep down I was scared to been alone

Somewhere down that lonely path
You appeared with love to follow anywhere I go

How did you know that you could turn my world around
This place I never would have found
Without you I would spend my life afraid to fly

Started with a leap of faith
Took me to a higher place
Though I wasn't ready to believe
You were there to reach inside of me

I thank you for the love you gave
For every step along the way
You taught me to believe again
Baby, that's the hardest part

All because you took the journey
The journey to the center of my heart

What a fool I would have been if I never let you
Inside of me, so faithfully you stood by me

Started with a leap of faith
Took me to a higher place
Wasn't ready to believe
You were there to reach inside of me

Thank you for the love you gave

For every step along the way
Taught me to believe again
Baby, that's the hardest part

All because you took the journey
Every step that brought us to know
And you knew it from the start
And your journey to the center of my heart

I thank God
You took the journey to the center of my heart