

In Stillness And Simplicity

Michael Card

In stillness and simplicity
In the silence of the heart I see
The mystery of eternity
Who lives in side of me

In stillness and simplicity
I hear the Spirit's silent plea
That You, oh Lord, are close to me
In stillness and simplicity

You're the Word
Who must be heard
By those who listen quietly
Is the reason we're not still

To hear You speak because
We don't believe You will
In stillness and simplicity
I lose myself in finding Thee

Oh Lord, You mean so much to me
In stillness and simplicity
So, seek the One who dwells in you
The kingdom that within is true

That innermost reality
In stillness and simplicity
