If You Could See Me Now

Michael Crawford

Here they come every night the same Silent stars, light from a distant flame Just like the memories of you that I hold inside I feel you touch but all the warmth has died

Empty rooms crowded by the past Time is my enemy, days keep moving faster But the nights alone can be an eternity That never heals the scars of foolish pride

If only you could see me, now Goodbye is not so easy, now The freedom that I walked away to gain Is nothing but these chains That you alone can break

And you would free me, now Your heart would come undone Just looking at me once And my love would bring you back If only you could see me, now

Here I am, stranger to a smile Trying to fight the tears, missing by a mile I'm not the one who laughed at you on that yesterday When you warned me not to throw your love away

If you could only see me, now Goodbye is not so easy, now The freedom that I walked away to gain Is nothing but these chains I know your heart would break

If you could hear me, now Your heart would come undone If you could hear me once Hoping love will bring you back If only you could see me, now

Like the lonely moon you see above That sails the dark alone forever I have no light of my own Other the love we've known So long ago, together

If you could feel me, now Your heart would come undone If you could touch me once I know love will bring you back If only you could see me, now See me now
