

Different Ways

Michael Kiske

You're in love!
What are you sad about?
Talking 'bout love!
What do you cry so loud?
If that is love! Just let it show

Now you're here!
It's what you were longing for
Everywhere
They search for that open door
To some kind of love - somewhere

And it all comes down to learn to let go again
Where it all goes down - learn to let go!
And if you don't mind, we walk ahead
That's all I now know

It's not hard
If you really mean it
You're drifting apart You just don't believe it
When it all starts - that's when we know

And it all comes down to learn to let go again
Where it all goes down - learn you let go!
And if you don't mind, we walk ahead
That's all I now know!
That's all I now know!
That's all I now know!
