

Easy

Michael Kiske

It's so easy - to hurt
It's so easy - to hate
It's not easy - to take the pain
Don't deny, don't you cry,
There's a lift somewhere
Deep within (yes)
It's giving that shows we care

If life gets too tough
And you give it all, that's enough
If blind is your love, it will carry your pain
But you got to show!
We had it all

And we gave it all away
Tears we will hide
All those years we learned to hide - Oh!

It's so easy - to hurt
It's so easy - to hate
It's not easy - to take the pain

Lay your head on me!
Lay it all on me!
Lay your head on me!
Put it all on me!
Lay all worries on me!
Lay all fears on me!
Lay all pain on me!
Lay it all on me!
Lay all load on me!
Just lay all weight on me!
(You can fly, you sure can fly with all weight off of your heart)
Put it all on my shoulder!

Long is the road
That leads out of cold
A second will carry all fortune at once
A second can show!
Embrace the world!

You got arms, embrace the world!
We run out of time
Yes we're bad, bad out of time - Oh!

It's so easy - to hurt
It's so easy - to hate
It's not easy - to love
