

Digging Your Love

Michael Learns to Rock

No more lonely talking waiting for the phone No more lonely walking in the streets alone

Today the sun is shining cos' since I meet you the sky seems so blue

And I'm digging your love
I'm digging your love
I am forever in your arms
can't get enough
And I go crazy
when you're not here I wanna follow you my friend to everywhere
I'm digging your love

Through a lot of dangers looking for a life Meet a lot of strangers drifting in the night
But now the world is changing because of that light that shines in your eyes

I get lost
I get high
You are taking me to the skies
when you're looking at me
