Eternal Flame

Michael Learns to Rock

The doors are open and you're on your way
The eyes of the world are on you to day
Fire is deep in your heart
Desire burning from the start
Your feeling like a winner deep inside

Dreaming of gold body of steel driving you on making you feel Second to none united again You carry the eternal flame

Breaking the records for power and speed Your faith in yourself now is all that you need Tears when chances are gone Joy for the lucky ones and then we celebrate a world who join as one

Dreaming of gold body of steel driving you on making you feel Second to none united again You carry the eternal flame
