

I Do

Michael Learns to Rock

I promised to love and cherish you for as long as we both shall live I'm left with an echo of "I do"

It doesn't seem so far away
I remember the promise we made Still hear an echo of "I do"

Cause you will always be a part of me
I keep you in my heart
And a piece of me will always be right there by your side

Now that you've found somebody new and Gods knows I'm happy for you don't you hear an echo of "I do"?

I've tried to erase you from my mind
It keeps me awake at night hunted by echoes of "I do"

Cause you will always be a part of me
I keep you in my heart
And a piece of me will always be
right there by your side

Who do you turn to when your sad who can replace the love we had How do you make it through the night when I am no longer by your side
If you ever need me I'll be there

Cause you will always be a part of me
I keep you in my heart
right there by your side
