

She'll Be Mine

Michael Learns to Rock

Nothing's gonna change it now - all right
She can't be bad
She drives me mad
In my head
She's one of a kind
So I don't mind - I don't mind
'Cause she's so cool
Nobody's fool
She has got her own set of rules
And I have been waiting - waiting for her

When she comes I hear her say
Hold me close - we'll drift away
All right - nothing's gonna change it nothing's gonna change it
now
She's so fine
She'll be mine
Forever and ever
All right - no one's gonna break it no one's gonna shake it now
She's so fine
She'll be mine

She might have thorns
She's never worn
Not for me
But when we're close
I just sense the smell of a rose
It might be wrong
It might be right
But I give up without a fight
'Cause I have been waiting - waiting for her

When she comes I hear her say
Hold me close (to night) - we'll drift away (we'll drift away)
All right - nothing's gonna change it nothing's gonna change it
now
She's so fine
She'll be mine
Forever and ever
All right - no one's gonna break it no one's gonna shake it now
She's so fine
She'll be mine
All right - nothing's gonna change it nothing's gonna change it
now
She's so fine
She'll be mine
All right
