

Watch Your Back

Michael Learns to Rock

In her eyes you see she'll bring you down to your knees
And your mind will bend
She'll get to you in the end

The wolf inside her is never satisfied
She's like a spider and you could be the fly

Hold on She's like a love attack
you better watch your back Cause you don't wanna be the victim of her crazy fantasies

When you feel her breath you stutter an S.O.S.
The queen of hearts is coming to tear you apart

She brings some heavy weather on you Your brain gets cloudy
There's nothing you can do

Hold on
She's like a love attack
you better watch your back
Cause you don't wanna be the victim of her crazy fantasies
So you better face the fact and take a big step back Cause you don't wanna be the victim of her crazy fantasies

Don't wanna loose yourself in her Don't wanna take that chance

Hold on...
