

You Want More

Michael Learns to Rock

You want more
You want more
You want more

The taste of love
You don't give up
The dream that grows in your mind
A touch of joy
A glimpse of light
You can sleep at night

You want more
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want a soul
Someone to adore
You want more
You want more
The sound of strings
Unfold your wings
and lets you fly side your head

The smell of grind
Unlocks your chain
Makes you dreaming once again
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want a soul
Someone to adore
You want more
You want more

You want more
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want a soul
You want a soul
Someone to adore
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want more
You want a soul
Someone to adore
