

Long Way Down (look What The Cat Drug In)

Michael Penn

Oh man, look what the cat drug in It's got the dress, tho the color's gone that I gave my one true love on Oh man, look what the wind blew home Never had this much stimulation since her low down elevation, but Oh, don't look in those eyes bluer than blue
her rule's on the rise and if I wear apathy's crown don't call me highness
it's a long way down

Oh, what terrible things she shows I'm overwhelmed by rumors this high and overcome by lows Oh, what use is it to pretend that I have the strength for this anymore This is all in the world that she lives for but...
Oh, don't look in those eyes bluer than blue
her rule's on the rise
and if I wear apathy's crown
don't call me highness
('cause) it's a long way down

Now I would suppose that I'm not the only one and one never knows... but I got a feeling she's been sleeping with the whole wide world

bluer than blue
her rule's on the rise
and if I wear apathy's crown
don't call me highness
it's a long way down
