

Trampoline

Michael Penn

When you're on a high
With no telling how
You got there
I might catch your eye
From a world beneath you
How do you?
Don't you recognize
What you are leaving?
Let me introduce
What you've just seen

A trampoline
And it's dropping out of view
Trampoline
Until gravity pulls you

When you hit the ground
The impression you are making
Is of one who's found
What all the reasons are
You fall so far
And with that put a dent
In my resistance
Hey, look whose lining up
To intervene

A trampoline
And it's dropping out of view
Trampoline
Until gravity pulls you
Trampoline
And it's dropping out of view
Trampoline
Until gravity pulls through
