

Heard You Crying

Michael Schulte

Hush now, you don't know how
I would sacrifice my world for you
Hush now, let it all fall out
You'll be right as rain onto

And I heard you crying so quietly
And I heard you crying, won't you cry on me
Oh, let me just hold you now all your life
Oh, when I heard you crying so quietly, last night

Rest here, bring your head near
You won't find your fears inside these arms
Rest here on my shoulder, dear
I will comfort you from all the harm

And I heard you crying so quietly
And I heard you crying, won't you cry on me
Oh, let me just hold you now all your life
Oh, when I heard you crying so quietly, last night
Oh I heard you crying

Sleep by me
This love I see shouldn't weep
Just be safe, be brave
Sweet you dream
Though the night may seem
So cold, be bold for me

And I heard you crying so quietly
And I heard you crying, won't you cry on me
Oh, let me just hold you now all your life
Oh, when I heard you crying so quietly, last night
Oh I heard you crying so quietly

(Ohh, ohh)
And I heard you crying so quietly
Last night
