

The Deep

Michael Schulte

Come down the hill,
Feel and follow the wind.
Cause now our time has come,
It's calling to begin.

CHORUS

Come to the deep now,
Do you see through the open sea?
Come to the deep now,
Do you see through the open sea?

Come, take my hand.
I'm going down on my broken knees.
The holy door will suffer from pain
And open up for a new way.

CHORUS

I will not give up, I will not give in,
Oh it's time to leave this place behind and run.
I will not give up, I will not give in,
Let's run before the demons crave out soul
