

Wanting You Now

Michael Tolcher

Is she the one?
She felt like an angel, heaven-sent
A sweet hello (hello)
Yeah, it was simple but different
We painted the town
Laughing at stories like we were friends
Look who we return
It's our own lies when the night ends

Wait, there's more to this
You were would be the one I would miss

I'm wanting you now, that's all I can say
Give me your heart to hold for always
All that you are is all that I need
Together, we should be

You are the flame
You light me up, I can feel the heat
We could turn minutes into years
Saying what makes your heart beat
Well, I feel mine
Pounding in rhythm for you, alone
I'm so empty without you
I'm a wreck, here, on my own

Wait, let's say goodbye
We could make this picture-perfect if we try

I'm wanting you now, that's all I can say
Give me your heart to hold for always
All that you are is all that I need
Together, we should be
I'm wanting you now, that's all I can say
Give me your heart to hold for always
All that you are is all that I need
Together, we should be
Together, we should

We could spend a lifetime
And never feel this way again
Now that I have felt it once
I'll be with you til the very end

I'm wanting you now, that's all I can say
Give me your heart to hold for always
All that you are is all that I need
Together, we should be

I'm wanting you now, that's all I can say
Give me your heart to hold for always
All that you are is all that I need
Together, we should be
I'm wanting you now, that's all I can say
Give me your heart to hold for always
All that you are is all that I need
Together, we should be

I'm wanting you now (I'm wanting you now)
I'm wanting you now (I'm wanting you now)
I'm wanting you now (I'm wanting you now)
I'm wanting you now (I'm wanting you now)
